A new steamer, being built at the Dalles, will be launched in a few days.

The O C R R propose to build a side track at Hillsboro at an early day.

I D Van Buren has been appointed Wells, Fargo & Co's agent at Roseburg.

Frank Simpson, indicted for horse stealing in Polk county, was arrested at Roseburg last Monday.

The winter term of the district school at the Dalles opened with one hundred and sixty two pupils.

The new Court House at Hillsboro is finished, except the seating, and is a credit to Washington county.

The steamer Albany went as far up the river as Corvallis last week and brought down 60 tons of wheat from that place.

The citizens of Roseburg propose to build a plank road from the traveled streets to the depot at that place. It will cost about $400.

A farmer in Benton county killed two hogs which weighed an even thousand pounds dressed, through they had run out all their lives.

Frank Rayburn, of Corvallis, while riding one horse and driving others, was kicked by one of the loose ones, and his leg broken thereby.

A farmer of Benton county, purchased, previous to last harvest, a Vibrator threshing machine for $800, and cleared the machine the first season.

The famous "dog case," in the Circuit Court at Salem, terminated last Saturday in a verdict for $00 in favor of the owner of the deceased canine, against the slayer.

The steamer Onward is slowly working her way up the Tualatin river. A large quantity of wheat is stored at Hillsboro awaiting shipment, when the rains open the river.

Mr T L Adams of Roseburg, made a run of 228 on a three quarter carom table, in Dave McKinney's saloon last Thursday, counting one at a shot. Very fair for a webfoot.

Large and rich deposits of chrome and copper have been found in the Cow Creek hills in Douglas county. The chrome is said to be very rich, yielding 90 per cent, and is found in inexhaustible quantities.

Wm Simpson, of Wasco county, was arrested at Ochoco, a few days ago, and brought to the Dalles upon a charge of stealing $800 from John Bohn. Failing to give bail in the sum of $1,000, he was put in jail.

The Pantagraph says: Mr Zeigler informs us that he learns by letter from Jacksonville that the Indians caught a little boy one day last week and burned him at the stake. Feeling against the Indians is becoming very bitter.

The residents of Canyonville are preparing for a jolly old fashioned Christmas. They are to have a Christmas tree on Christmas eve, a shooting match and other sports during the day, and two balls in full blast during Christmas night.

A hostler and a driver on the O & C stage line had a row at Canyonville last week about some horses, which resulted in the driver getting first knocked down with a rock, and finally driving the hostler from the scene of the conflict.

The following business was transacted at the Land Office at Roseburg, during the month of November: Cash sales, 894 acres; homestead entries, 2,233 acres; final homesteads, 2,265; A C Scrip, 1,120 acres; donation certificates, 1,000 acres; pre-emption filings, 3,600 acres. Total, 11,050.

The Journal has been furnished with the following report of the travel over the Military Road for the past year: "Going east—cattle, 8,340; horses, 1,443; wagons, 323; sheep, 13,433; men, 468; women, 138; children, 237. Going west—cattle, 130; horses, 204; wagons, 59; men, 135; women, 43; children, 113."

A gentleman lecturing at McMinnville the other night, was disturbed by some young ladies whispering in the audience. Toward the close of his lecture, while he was making some grandiloquent remarks the offence was repeated, when the speaker suddenly paused and surprised his audience by saying "I'll bet $2 50 those girls haven't heard a word I've said!"

The town of Canyonville is flourishing finely. It contains two dry goods stores, with heavy stocks, three saloons, two hotels, two blacksmith shops, two livery stables, two good schools, one church, two cabinet shops, two flouring mills, two saw mills; a flourishing Good Templar organization, one brewery, two doctors, and one lawyer. All together enjoying life and doing well.

The Plaindealer says: "Two companies of the 21st Infantry under the command of Colonel Mason, arrived at Roseburg by special train on Wednesday morning, and left the next morning for the scene of hostilities near Klamath Lake. As these troops have just come from a five years' campaign in Arizona, they are likely to prove very effective. Captains Silva, Boyle, Burton, Lt. Moore and Dr J B White, surgeon, accompanied the detachment."

The Yoncalla correspondent of the Pantagraph says: "We have had some very cold weather here, but the stock, as a general thing, looks well. Farmers are putting in their crops and are very jubilant over the victory of the election. W A Mulvaney was out in the Charles Applegate settlement, hunting, and killed three cougars and one open in two days. There were twenty two head of sheep destroyed by these cougars before they were captured. Mr Mulvaney, in company with Mr James Wicker, has assisted in killing 54 cougars in the past three years."

Twenty years ago, Chemeketa was the only lodge of Odd Fellows in what was then known as Oregon Territory—now there are in Oregon, alone, 41 lodges, and 3 Rebecca lodges, besides several Encampments—with a membership of 1,556. In the jurisdiction, which includes Washington and Idaho, there are 53 lodges, with a membership of 2,084. The aggregate revenues of these lodges in 1871 was $11,660 91, and for the first half of 1872, it was $22 866 84, showing a healthful increase of wealth. Many of the lodges are the owners of considerable property, which does not figure in the statement of revenues.

Chemeketa Lodge, No 1, I O O F, of Salem, celebrated its twentieth anniversary on last Friday evening. Since the organization of the lodge in 1852, the number of persons initiated into membership is 160; admitted by card, 79; admitted as Ancient Odd Fellows, 16; number withdrawn to join other lodges, 105; ceased membership, 46; deceased, 5; present number of members in good standing, 76; number of Past Grands, 25. The lodge has expended for relief of members, $2,827 72; for nurses for the sick, $403 50; physicians bills, $100; burials, $450; by General Relief Committee and donations, $210. Total, $1,981 25.

At the meeting of the Board of Managers of the State Agricultural Society, held at Salem last week, the proper officers were instructed to negotiate a loan sufficient to clear off all the liabilities of the Society, though it may be necessary to mortgage the Fair Grounds. Mr Robert Irvine of Linn county was elected Grand Marshal for the ensuing year; the premium list was overhauled and rearranged for 1873, with offers of medals in excess of money premiums; the rule requiring all visitors to wear badges, was abolished, and such other orders were made, of a subordinate character as will enable the officers to go forward with the affairs of the Society.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional

WASHINGTON, Dec 6.—In the Senate the Finance Committee was instructed to inquire and report as soon as practicable what legislation is necessary to relieve the stringency of the money market and the propriety of issuing additional legal tenders.

Cole introduced a bill to replace the National currency with United States notes. Referred.

Morton introduced a bill creating a Commission to adjust the claims under the Geneva award. The bill authorizes the appointment of Commissioners at the annual salary of $4,000, and a Secretary at a salary of $3,000, to hear and decide all claims for losses by the acts of the rebel cruisers for whose escape the Geneva Tribunal held Great Britain responsible; also the appointment of two persons as counsel to the Commissioners, the pay to be fixed by the Secretary of State. The Commission to organize at Washington, but may hold its session in other cities, and to be limited to two years; the warrants to be paid sixty days from the day of finding, with interest at six per cent from the date of the loss of property, except that no interest is to be paid until the claims are decided, when, if the amount is sufficient, interest is to be paid in full, otherwise pro rata. The money when received from England is to be set apart as a fund for the payment of these claims.

Rice moved to take up the question as to who had applied for troops to be sent to Arkansas.

A motion was made to refer to the Military Committee.

After a debate, the motion was agreed to by a vote of 23 to 18.

The Senate then went into Executive session, after which it adjourned until next Monday.

In the House, Dawes, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill abolishing the offices of Assessor and Assistant Assessors of Internal Revenue and transferring their duties to the collectors.

Duke of Virginia gave notice of an amendment to abolish the whole of the Internal Revenue system.

Dawes moved the previous question, and under its operation the amendments were agreed to, fixing the time for the bill to go into operation on July 1st 1873, requiring collectors to give additional bonds for their new duties, and then the bill passed.

The House Committee to investigate the Credit Mobilier charges have organized, and will begin the investigation next Thursday.

An Important Decision.

WASHINGTON, Dec 7.—Judge McArthur of the Criminal Court has reversed the decision recently given against the keeper of a restaurant for his refusal to entertain colored men. He holds that the proprietor of the restaurant was the proper judge of whom he received in his house.

Miscellaneous Items

WASHINGTON, Dec 6.—Barney Woods was hanged in jail yesterday for the murder of Samuel N Cheeseman on the 11th of August last.

The Board of Managers of the National Asylum for disabled volunteers held their annual meeting in the Surgeon-General's office to-day. President Grant, Gen Butler, General Martindale, Governor E Smith, Lewis B Gunckle, General Thomas O Osborne and General Wolcott were present. Reports from the various asylums showed that the few regular buildings are fuller than ever. Nearly 4,000 disabled soldiers are being provided for in the different asylums. After the necessary appropriation the Board adjourned until the 4th of March.

EASTERN STATES

Financial.

CHICAGO, Dec 7.—A Washington special says Senator Cole's bill to replace the National Bank notes with United States notes provides that whenever and as often as notes of any National Bank to the amount of $900 shall accumulate in the Treasury, and after 30 days notice thereof to such bank, interest shall cease and be suspended upon $1,000 of United States bonds deposited in the Treasury to the credit of such bank as security for its circulation until such bank shall return said bonds by payment of $900 in current money into the Treasury of the United States.

It is reported that the bill merging the offices of Collectors and Assessors of Internal Revenue into the former will be strongly opposed in the Senate.

The Louisiana Muddle

CHICAGO, Dec 7.—The President is reported to be vexed and disgusted with the Louisiana muddle, and the feeling is shared by many members of Congress.

Endorsement of Bingham

CHICAGO, Dec 7.—The entire Ohio Republican Congressional delegation to-day signified to the President a willingness to call on him in a body to endorse Judge Bingham for a Foreign Mission. Havana News.

HAVANA, Dec 6.—Richard Smith, another survivor of the steamer Missouri, has arrived at Nassau. He is the man who abandoned Conway's boat and swam to the capsized boat for the purpose of righting her. Conway cut the painter connecting the two boats and they drifted out of sight of each other. Smith and Alfred Stewart drifted with the boat bottom upward for three days at the mercy of the waves. On the fourth day they managed to right the boat, made a sail from life preservers and proceeded. They landed at the western key of Abaco. On the seventh day after landing Stewart died of fever, produced by exhaustion. Smith caught a little rain water on the ninth day and with prickly pears and soft shell crabs sustained himself until the seventeenth day, when he was taken off the island and brought to Nassau. He goes to New York on the steamer Columbia.

Further from the Modoc Troubles

YREKA, Dec 7.—George Fiocke, who was reported killed by the Modocs, arrived in town this evening. From him we learn the following additional particulars: Fiocke was all through the fight, having started from Link river at 2 A M on the 29th ult, in company with Ivan Applegate, on Clear Lake, where they obtained horses. On Monday, the 2d, they proceeded to Tule Lake and saw Mrs Brotherton, who told them she had been alone for two nights, and that her husband and two sons, aged 11 and 22 years, were killed while hauling wood. Mrs Brotherton and two young sons built a barricade in the house of sacks of flour. She says that the Indians were on horses taken from Mr Brotherton's teams. Mrs Brotherton and sons killed two of the Indians and kept them away from the house night and day so that they could not burn it, and had not slept for two nights. She and the two boys and a little girl were then taken by Fiocke's party to the settlements. Fiocke states that Henry Miller was undoubtedly taken away alive, as they found where his team had run off into the woods. They also found the body of Miller's woodchopper, name unknown. Fiocke says the cause of the report that he was killed, was that he was out with a party hunting dead bodies and met a German, a partner of John Shroder, hunting for Shroder's body, when Fiocke said he knew where it was, and with Chas Monroe, who was also reported killed, started back to find it. Near Mr Miller's house, as they were hunting for the dead body, they took the wrong road, and becoming uneasy returned to the house. Upon reaching the house Fiocke and Monroe saw a party of men riding toward them from Bloody Point. This party proved to be the Applegate brothers, with a party of friendly Klamath Indians. Applegate then got Fiocke to go out and find the body. Not taking his gun and while alone hunting it, he saw a party of Modocs under Scar-faced Charley. One of the Indians rode ahead and shot twice at Fiocke and also set Shroder's house on fire. Fiocke's hailing called Applegate's attention, when he observed Shroder's house on fire and sent young Sconches, a friendly Modoc, to see Charley and induce him to fight, while they made port-holes in the house. After some talk they said they would fight, and were about to get behind a haystack and barn, when Sconches was sent out by Applegate to burn both the haystack and barn, and succeeded in doing so before the Modocs came up. The Indians, finding no shelter, fled toward Bloody Point, and that night Applegate and party returned to the soldiers camp. Fiocke says that when he was going to Linkville yesterday he met Overton and others with a wagon containing a coffin for himself and Monroe. He also says that all the male settlers on Tule Lake have been killed, but the women and children escaped.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

SEATTLE, Dec. 6.—The Captain of a vessel lately arrived at Tacoma, reports that he passed through miles of lumber when opposite the mouth of the Columbia. There is little doubt but that it is the cargo of the missing schooner Walter Raleigh, Captain Hanson, which sailed from Freeport with lumber for San Francisco over six weeks ago.

In the Port Townsend District Court, Henry Quayle, alias "Poker Jack," Doyle and Sutton, all charged with murder, were acquitted.

The condemned bark Scotland was sold at auction today for $2,000.

The brig Perpetua was at Kalama last week discharging iron. She brought a cargo for the Northern Pacific Railroad.

C D Morrison of San Francisco offers to expend $500 in disseminating intelligence concerning Washington Territory if the business men of Puget Sound will contribute $300 of that amount.

A boy named Gallagher, whose parents reside in Olympia, one day last week, while playing with an open knife, slipped and fell, the point of the knife passing through the pupil of the boy's right eye.

An agent of the Maryland Copper Smelting Companies is inspecting the copper mines of Utah. The Salt Lake Mining Journal says that ores running 30 per cent. copper, free from arsenic and antimony, are worth in that city, or delivered on the cars, from $55 to $70 per ton.

The Vancouver Register intimates that some one talks of establishing a sash and door factory in that place and says ironically: "If such things are allowed to go on our town will begin to grow. Streets will be straightened out and improved. The sound of the saw and hammer will spoil our morning naps. The discordant yell of steam whistles will annoy our ears. The thing must be stopped. We want a quiet town. If any of us take a Rip Van Winkle sleep we want to wake up and find things in Vancouver as we left them. Let all good and quiet loving citizens join in opposing innovations."

The Farmer says: This is perhaps one of the best fall seasons for all manner of outdoor work, which has been known in Western Oregon for twenty years past. The rains have been sufficiently copious to moisten and soften the ground for a foot or more in depth, making it in excellent order for plowing and sowing, and for fall culture for a spring crop. It was feared that the sharp days which we had in last month would damage the fall wheat and newly sown grass. But the crops now look green and promising, and they are encouraging to the farmers. The season is so very favorable, that farmers can fall plow all their lands in the best order, which in this country is a sure precursor of a good crop in the next season.

A boss workman at Gaston ordered some Chinese to go to work the other day which they refused to do. He made some threats, whereupon the Celestials rushed upon him with picks and shovels menacing his very life. He seized a pick handle and went for them, scattering them like sheep, and knocking some of them prone to the earth.

A special term of the Circuit Court for Lane county will begin at Eugene City to-morrow. Miller will be tried for the killing of Cherokee Smith.

Indian Commissioners' Report

WASHINGTON, Dec 7.—Following is a synopsis of the fourth annual report of the Board of Indian Commissioners: After three years' working of the peace policy the Board find cause for congratulation in that their anticipations of success in the attempt to civilize the tribes have been so far fulfilled that now reasonable assurance of the object in view is being rapidly attained and nearly five-sixths of the Indians of the United States are now either civilized or partly civilized. Various fraudulent dealings which agencies formerly made sources from which large fortunes were rapidly made are nearly abandoned. Instead of paying for thirty six per cent more than is received, Government receives the full amount of money appropriated and the Indian gets all he is fairly entitled to. The Sioux and other tribes on the Northern Pacific Railroad are generally well disposed. The Indian Territory having a smaller area than any of the other Territories, has a population exceeding any with the exception of New Mexico and Utah. It has more acres under cultivation than any other in the United States. This in effect, fully disposes of the statement that there is considerable land idle compared to other portions of the United States. The Board deems it a matter of congratulation that public opinion in the country is so rapidly crystalizing into purposes of justice and humanity.

The Alabama Muddle

The Alabama Committee representing Capitol Legislature stated their case to the Attorney General this afternoon. The result of the conference was the same as that with Judge Williams by the Court House Legislative Committee—namely, that the Government will not interfere unless some question arises under the Constitution calling for Federal interference.

The Louisiana Crisis.

WASHINGTON, Dec 7.—Telegrams are received here to-day by a Louisiana member of Congress from officers of the Government giving statements from both sides. Private advices contain substantially the same information already conveyed, though each side denounces the other for having usurped possession of the State, in violation of all right, and request the points of their respective statements be laid before the President, and that the action of the Federal Government stand upon official authority. It is the intention of the Government to sustain the U S Courts. This has already been communicated by telegraph to gentlemen of New Orleans who requested official information in the premises.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec 7.—Judge Darrel to-day issued a sweeping restraining order against Gov Warmoth and all other State officers, clerks of the House and Senate, Chief of Police, and others, preventing any interference whatever with the assembling of the Legislature, and forbidding all persons from participating as members of said Legislature who have not been returned as members thereof by the Custom House Returning Board, and whose names have not been transmitted by Geo Bourie, Secretary, to the Secretary of the Senate and clerks of the House.

It now turns out that he killed a colored man whom he hired temporarily, and after the man was dead the Professor cut his hands off and buried them, the object being to make the authorities believe that the body was his, so that his wife could obtain the insurance of $25,000 on his life. He acknowledges that he killed the negro, but that it was in self defence. West is now in jail.

VISALIA.—The Court House was again crowded last evening to hear discussions on narrow gauge railroad. The Stockton subscription list shown covered upward of sixty thousand dollars, besides other lists not yet in. A committee of four will proceed to Stockton to organize a company and open subscription books. The bylaws endorsed by the meeting contain a provision that stockholders cannot sell except to original stockholders without the consent of four-fifths of the remainder, after giving the Trustees the preference to purchase. Numbers announced a willingness to do grading, furnish teams, etc, and take stock in payment. Hiring Chinese laborers was strenuously opposed. Farmers living on the Southern Pacific Railroad are taking stock as well as those eastward. A telegram was received from a meeting being held at Stockton announcing increased subscriptions.

Hon J F Gazley has invented a harrow which he proposes to patent. If it rakes the ground as he rakes the Democracy it will do. In the Statesman it is described as follows: "The harrow is carried on wheels like a seed drill. It has arrangements by which it can be instantly gauged as to depth, or raised instantly over low stumps or other obstructions. The driver rides in a seat rigged on the axle tree, as in the case of gang plows, and from this seat manages the team and machine, with easy facility. Mr Gazley has used one of them on his farm in Umpqua, about a year and says he would not attempt to carry on farming without one. All clogs, roots, straw, etc, can be cleaned from the teeth without stopping the team or lifting a pound. Any boy who can drive a team, can manage the machine. Mr Gazley says the cost of the entire outfit is about $75. The same axle may have rigged to it, a seed drill, or a hay rake, at small additional cost.

PLENTY OF RAIN.—The Sacramento Union of November 30, has this cheering item:

MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 9, 1872.

The Report of the Secretary of the Treasury.

The Report of the Secretary of the Treasury contains much interesting information, besides the statement of the receipts and disbursements during the last fiscal year, which was copied in full in the President's Message.

The estimates of receipts for the three remaining quarters of the current year are as follows:

> Customs, $131,000,000, public lands, $1,500,000, internal revenue, $73 000 000, tax on national banks, $5,000,000, Pacific railways, $500,000, custom fines, etc., $800,000; patent office and other fees, $1,700,000, sales of public property, $600,000, miscellaneous, $1,400,000—total $218,000,000. The estimated expenditures for the same period are: Civil expenses, $13,000,000, foreign intercourse, $900,000, Indians, $4,000,000; pensions, $20,000,000, military, $23,000,000, naval $13,500,000, miscellaneous civil, $27,000,000, interest on the public debt, $71,500,000—total, $173,700,000. This will leave $11,800,000 surplus revenue, applicable to the purchase or redemption of the public debt. The amount required for this purpose under the sinking fund law for the year will be about $29,200,000. It is estimated that the receipts for the fiscal year ending June, 1874, will be: From customs, $200,000,000, sales of public lands, $3,000,000; internal revenue, $103,000,000, tax on national banks, $6,300,000, Pacific railways, $900,000; customs fines, etc., $1,100,000, consular, patent and other fees, $2,400,000, sales of public property, $1,500,000, miscellaneous sources, $2,200,000—total, $320,300,000.
> The foregoing estimates are based upon the amount of revenue collected since the act of May and June, 1872, went into operation, but the imports have been large, and considerable sums have been obtained by internal revenue officers on account of old taxes and claims. Hence, it will be wise to leave the sources of revenue undisturbed for the present session. The total estimated expenses to the end of the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1874, amount to $86,600,000, leaving an estimated surplus revenue of $33,700,000.

The Secretary states the total reduction of taxation since the close of the war at $309,350,171. Since the institution of the sinking fund, there was purchased on account thereof, up to June 30th, 1872, $99,397,600 in five-twenties, at a cost of $94,097,213 82 in gold. In addition to the purchases for the sinking fund, the Secretary has purchased other bonds to the amount of $173,237,350, at a cost of $163,376,054 35 in gold. The cost of these bonds, says the Secretary, estimated in gold, has raised from 82.21 per dollar to 99.09 per dollar; the most recent purchase being at rate of 98.66 per dollar. The average cost in gold for the whole amount of purchases up to and including the last day of September, was 91 64 per dollar.

The report gives the following facts concerning the carrying trade of the United States:

> The imports and exports of the United States, including gold and silver, amounted to $1,070,641 163 for the fiscal year ending June 1872, and of this vast trade only 28½ percent was in American vessels. In 1860 nearly 71 per cent of our foreign commerce was in American ships. In 1864 it had fallen to 46 per cent. In 1863 to 44 per cent, and 1871 to less than 30 per cent. The earnings of vessels engaged in the foreign carrying trade will probably exceed $100,000,000 per year, of which less than one third is earned under our own flag. The Secretary thinks the allowance of drawbacks allowed on ship building materials has given encouragement to ship building, but he considers such measures entirely inadequate, and earnestly counsels vigorous measures for the revival of American commerce, and he argues at length in favor of direct aid to establish lines of ships, urging that to the great producing classes of the country the benefits will much exceed the cost.

The President, in his message, though he gave no specific statement of the facts in the premises, called the attention of Congress to the decline of our merchant marine. A decline from 71 per cent. to 28½, in our carrying trade, is certainly a matter of national moment.

The report also makes a very unsatisfactory showing in regard to our foreign commerce. The balance of trade appears to be fearfully against us. The following are the Secretary's figures on imports and exports:

> The excess of imports over exports for the fiscal year ending June, 1872, was $182,548,991; from which, however, should be deducted the value of goods remaining in warehouses at the end of the fiscal year and the excess of exports over imports of gold, which would leave an adverse balance of $82,528,639. This balance has been met, probably, by freight receipts from American vessels, the profits of American exporters, the sales of bonds abroad and investments in United States securities by foreigners. The exports of merchandise for 1872 show a decrease of $13,298,033 over 1871. The exports of wheat, flour, raw cotton, cotton manufactured, gold and silver, fire arms, manufactures of leather, illuminating oil and beef, fall off $32,006,325, while there was a gain of $68,767,892 in exports of corn, furs, hides, skins, bacon, hams, lard, leaf tobacco, manufactures of iron, wood and many minor articles. There was an increase in exports of every branch of manufactures except cotton, leather and firearms. The decrease of our exports in wheat and wheat flour was $12,000,000; raw cotton, $37,000,000; manufactured cotton, $1,125,000; gold and silver, $11,000,000; firearms, $12,000,000; manufactures of leather, $600,000; illuminating oils, $8,500,000; beef, $2,000,000. The statistics of imports show an increase of $700,000 in coffee, $1,800,000 in sugar, nearly $5,000,000 in tea, more than $17,000,000 in raw wool, $4,000,000 in manufactures of silk, and about $70,400,000 in manufactures of wool during last year.

In discussing the national currency, it is stated that the commercial value of silver has depreciated in the last ten years about three per cent. as compared with gold, and its use as currency has been discontinued in Germany and some other countries. Reference is made to the fact, that the condition of the Treasury has been such for ten years past, as to preclude the use of a metallic currency in the United States, and the Secretary expresses the opinion, that it would not be expedient now to attempt its introduction, and that coinage should be limited by the demand for gold and silver currency for use in our commerce with foreign countries. The issue of Treasury notes, and the system of National Banks, the Secretary thinks, should be continued. He believes our financial condition will gradually improve from natural causes, and that finally the resumption of specie payment may thus be brought about. He says, however:

> It is yet advisable to bring the power of the Government to aid the movement for a practicable revival of our foreign commerce. This is one instrumentality—perhaps the most efficient of all. If the annual earnings of American vessels were $80,000,000 instead of $30,000,000, the difference in the amount of exchange available abroad would meet a large part of the adverse balance in ordinary years. The experience of Europe tends to show that the ability of a country to maintain specie payment is due mainly to the condition of foreign trade; and next to every measure which increases or improves the channels of transportation between the seaboard and cotton and grain growing regions of the country, lessens the cost of freights, adds something to our capacity to compete successfully in the markets of the world. Finally, those measures which encourage American manufactures, especially iron, wool and cotton, and discourage the importation of like products, affect favorably the balance of trade and help us toward the end we seek. I think that all will have gained, that is in value, when the treasury shall be prepared to pay the demand notes of the Government in coin, and the banks shall be prepared to pay notes either in coin or legal tender notes, then our fortunes will appear in this, that our paper currency is not exclusively national bank notes or exclusively United States notes.

A Tour through Oregon

At the meeting of the Academy of Sciences in San Francisco, Dec. 2d, W. A Goodyear of the State Geological Survey, read a very interesting account of a tour through Oregon, an abstract of which is published in the S. F. Bulletin. He begins with the valley of Cow creek and the surrounding mountains, which, he says, are made of unaltered sand stone He saw nothing in Southern Oregon that indicates volcanic origin, except the hills near Jacksonville, known as Table Rocks, which he thinks are probably capped with lava.

The coal mines of Coos Bay, so far as discovered, are all set down as parts of the same belt, and it is doubted whether there is any but the one bed in that region, yet the coal-field of Coos Bay is very extensive, reaching as far back from the coast as ten or twelve miles, at least, and from the Coquille on the south, to the mouth of the Umpqua on the north. The Coos Bay coal is pronounced somewhat superior to the Mount Diablo article for domestic use, and not quite equal to it for steam purposes.

From the Coos Bay country north toward Portland, there was nothing observed indicating volcanic origin, till Albany was reached, where volcanic pebbles were found in the gravel used in ballasting the railway It is left for the reader of the report to infer from this that the volcanic region begins about Albany, but it is probable the explorer overlooked the fact that this gravel was carried to to that point either from the Santiam bottom, whither it had been carried by that stream from the Cascade Mountains, or else from still farther down the valley. The first decidedly volcanic district reached is that between Oregon City and Aurora. Thence to Portland there is nothing that is not volcanic.

The Cascade Mountains, where the Columbia cuts through them, are said to be "entirely made up of a series of superimposed sheets of lava, which, when it flowed, ran not in narrow streams but spread its fiery floods both far and wide in all directions over the then smooth and nearly level, or very gently sloping country. They, therefore, consist today of terraces of solid compact rock from base to summit, and the quantity of breccias or fragmentary materials of any kind, is comparatively so small as to be hardly noticed."

The formation of the Cascade Mountains is compared with that of the Sierra Nevadas, and it is stated that "the total quantity of volcanic matter in the mining counties of the Sierra Nevada is utterly insignificant compared with the vast accumulations that have built up the Cascade range. The absolute quantity in the Sierra is indeed great. But that in the Cascade Mountains is more than great—it is stupendous."

From the hills back of Portland a view of our snow peaks was taken, and they are thus described—or rather mentioned, for they cannot be described:

> Those who have seen Mount Hood and Mount St. Helens know that both of them rise like Shasta towering, solitary and sublime, 6,000 or 6,000 feet above everything else around them Mount [illegible] is said to rise in a similar way, and Mount Rainier is even grander still But Mount Rainier is not in sight from here, being nearly in line with, and probably hidden by, Mount St. Helens The base and greater portion of the mass of Mount Adams were also hidden by some high mountains which rise between, but its snow clad summit rose clean and high over all in the distance, and sharply cut against the deep blue heavens.
> Yet the beauty and the majesty were in Mount Hood and Mount St Helens. These stood revealed in all their outlines, but robed from base to crest in virgin snow, as pure and white as only freshest snow can be in sunlight such as this. The lower mountains and the forests far around the base of Hood were also white with snow, and here and there a rocky spur protruded from the snow high up the steep slopes of the peak itself.
> But up to the very foot of St Helens swept the dark forests, without a speck of whiteness, and from their deep shades she rose in sharp cut, solitary majesty, the most symmetrical volcanic cone I ever saw, lifting her head to heaven, without a spot in all her robe of white—grand in her lonely altitude, unrivaled in stately beauty, and clothed in rare and radiant glory by the sunlight and the snow.

On November 20th Bishop Simpson delivered the opening lecture of the Young Men's Christian Association course, at Williamsburg, on the progress and events of the last decade. From a synopsis of his lecture reported in the Times we judge it to have been peculiarly interesting. He depicted the wonderful events of the last ten years, which he called an age of preparation. He touched first on the geographical investigations now conducted; then on the telegraphic communications; the union of the Atlantic and Pacific by an iron connection, and the Mediterranean and Red Seas by water; the railroad from France to Italy through the Alps; the increased and increasing wealth of nations, and the growth of cities He alluded to the progress of agriculture by the aid of machinery and literature; the advancement of literature, through which all events, discoveries, and even thoughts, are recorded, the increased facilities for education, and the wonderful perfection of science, showing that even storms are regulated by laws. He spoke of the wonders of light, and the spectroscope; the progress of human liberty all over the world; freedom of thought and religion, the destruction of absolutism everywhere, and the heroism of the age, as exemplified in the acts of Farragut, and President Lincoln granting emancipation despite the prophetic warnings of its opponents The speaker next referred to Seward's course through the decade, and Bismarck's acts in Europe, and the progress in naval architecture and machinery, as shown by the little Monitor. He then briefly touched on the events that had occurred in Mexico, France, Italy, and the Roman States, all showing progress.

On the evening of the 25th of November, says the New York Times, a large meeting was held in Baltimore, of persons interested in pressing upon Congress the payment of the French Spoliation Claims. These claims arise out of the seizure or destruction of over 1,500 American vessels, valued with their cargoes at $15,000,000 or $20,000,000, prior to 1801, which depredations were in retaliation for the refusal of the United States to be bound by treaty stipulations during the struggle of the Colonies with Great Britain. These claims the United States years ago solemnly undertook to pay, and bills for the relief of the sufferers by the French spoliations have been before more than forty Congresses. They have been favorably reported on by 41 Committees, they have seven times passed the Senate, and twice the House, and have been twice vetoed—by Polk and by Pierce The meeting passed resolutions looking to the pressing of the claims vigorously during the coming session of Congress.

Sacramento county, California, has a funded debt of $775,100, and a floating debt of $16,180 The county owns property of the value of $301,800. The total value of property, real and personal, in the county, is $28,952,360, and the rate of taxation in the city is $1 20 per $100, outside of the city, $1 28.

A few days ago, there were seven sea going vessels in the harbor at Coos Bay.

A HANDSOME VINEYARD—The Sacramento Union is publishing a series of articles entitled "Suburban Sketches," from the last number of which we clip the following description of Orleans Hills vineyard:

> This vineyard is owned by a joint stock company, place of business Sacramento The vineyard is located on the foothills of Yolo county three miles south of the north of Cache Creek Cañon, on the old grant known as the Canada de Capay (Blooming Valley) It is distant from Sacramento city west by north thirty six miles There are in the vineyard 100,000 vines The first were planted in 1869, and the largest portion in '70 and '71 The vines, which are principally of the Riesling and Orleans varieties, are set out six feet apart The grapes there raised, in order to reach this city, have to be teamed to Woodland, a distance of fourteen miles, and there they are transferred to the cars The vines are all on the hills and receive no irrigation All the varieties grown are the best known German and other foreign grapes, peculiarly adapted to wine-making. Superior articles of white and red wines are manufactured from the grapes grown on the Orleans Hill vineyard, the same commanding high prices and finding ready sale

JUVENILE DEVILTRY—What the ingenuity and precocious intellects of Portland boys are not capable of devising is scarcely worth knowing The latest instrument which they have invented to commit mischief with, is a new sort of rubber sling. First a strong forked stick is procured and next a stout band of India rubber is stretched across and tied to the ends of the prongs To use this very simple and innocent (?) toy which is designated as a "bean shooter," the urchin grasps the stick below the fork in his right hand with his left hand he places a bean or small stone in the middle of the India rubber band holding the missile to be projected firmly between the forefinger and thumb, the band is drawn back to its utmost tension and then suddenly let go The missile is thrown forward with wonderful precision and force Recently the little scamps have substituted small shot for beans These, on the account of their weight are much more effective, and can with ease be thrown through thick glass At the distance of ten or twelve paces, buck shot can almost be buried in the wood of a soft cedar post by means of this contrivance It is common diversion with the boys to shiver the windows of unoccupied houses, and we hear of much complaint on this score. Another popular amusement is to range off on sides and wage a fierce warfare As yet we have heard of no accidents resulting from this precarious sport It is a matter of some surprise, as severe bodily harm can be inflicted by these leaden missile when projected in close quarters Parents should take this matter under careful advisement, and compel their children, under severe penalty, to discontinue the use of this 'bean shooter'"

BRILLIANT WEDDING—The St Charles Hotel was the scene of a grand wedding and reception yesterday afternoon and evening. The contracting parties were Mr. Falk Steinhardt of San Francisco, and Miss Emma Hirsch, of this city At 5 in the afternoon the ceremonies of marriage were performed by the Rev. M May, in the parlor of the hotel The bride was dressed in white mull, with veil and hair trimmed with orange blossoms forming an attractive and pleasing appearance The groom was arrayed in the usual neat dress, donned by gentlemen placed in that position. Supper was served by "mine host," Sprenger, in good taste, after which the reception took place, and later in the evening the dinner room was cleared for dancing in which all present indulged. Wine, champagne and edibles were freely indulged in After a social good cheer the company departed at a late hour, congratulating the wedded pair and wishing them many days of happiness Friends at a distance sent in their regrets with congratulations The presents with compliments of friends in this city and San Francisco were of the most elegant description.

DANGER OF COLLISIONS—Teamsters are very reckless in their manner of driving about the city and the infrequency of collisions is a matter of surprise. But since the establishment of street cars along First street, drivers will be compelled to exercise a greater degree of caution. When two vehicles moving in opposite directions pass both can veer a little to one side or the other,and avoid coming in contact With the street cars the case is different The cars move straight forward without the slightest deviation, and the wagons, drays etc, must "clear the way," or suffer the consequences Especially at the intersection of streets is the danger of colliding increased, where drivers dash rapidly around the corners without knowing that the coast is clear First street is more frequented by vehicles than any other thoroughfare in the city, and unless greater caution and less speed characterize the drivers we shall expect to hear of numerous smashups

TAKEN TO THE DALLES—The engines and boiler of the old condemned steamer Julia have been removed and the boat will soon be broken to pieces The shaft of the steamer was taken last week, up to the Company's shop, and will probably be used in the new craft now being built there.

Why Endure What is Cured?
"What can't be cured must be endured," says the proverb; but indigestion can be cured, and therefore it is the merest stupidity to endure it Dyspeptics have certainly a right to continue dyspeptics to the end of their days if they choose but as it is not supposed that any rational being prefers physical torment to ease and health the probability is that if all sufferers from indigestion were convinced that an absolute infallible remedy for their complaint existed they would with one accord resort to it We most emphatically declare that such a remedy does exist and that its name is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters The record of its success extends over a period of more than twenty years, and it is fearlessly alleged that during the whole of that time, it has never failed to afford permanent relief in any disorder or derangement of the stomach that was not organic, malignant and incurable The testimonials that go to establish this important fact can be counted by the thousand Stomach complaints that had been aggravated by a total disregard of all dietary rules and intensified and rendered chronic by medicinal treatment or drastic purgation have in hundreds of instances been cured within three months by the systematic use of this celebrated stomachic and alterative It should be remembered that weakness of the digestive organs involves many other ailments Biliousness headache, spasms, palpitation of the heart, nervous debility rush of blood to the head, nausea vertigo and sleeplessness are among its concomitants and results, and for all these the great vegetable tonic is a specific It acts first upon the stomach, and through the stomach upon the secretory and nervous systems and the bowels its general effect being always genial and beneficent

The Norwegian Vote in the Late Election.

From the Fœdrelandet og Emigranten the great Norwegian newspaper of the Northwest we take the following article on the position of the Norwegian citizens of the United States of the late Presidential election

We have always been proud of the political standpoint chosen by our countrymen in the past, but never more so than at the present time, on account of the steadfastness shown to the principles of the Republican party in the late election It is a well-known fact that, when the Republican party first swung its banner to the breeze, with liberty and equal rights inscribed upon it, a large number of the Norwegians rallied around it with an ardor and enthusiasm excelled by no other nationality A portion still clung to the old Democratic party, but when the war broke out, and it became clear to them that the Democratic party was the party of slavery and rebellion, they, too, forsook it, and of late years the Norwegians have been found almost unanimously in the ranks of the Republican party. The opposition have not failed to perceive the importance of our people to any party that could secure them, and no election has passed without a determined effort on their part to divide our strength In this last campaign they seemed to grow desperate They knew full well that with our countrymen on their side, they could control Wisconsin and Minnesota, and some part of every Western State, or even with them especially divided, that they could carry the legislature in those States, which, particularly in Wisconsin, was the great end and aim of all their struggles With this point in view, they marshalled all their forces, and brought up all their reserve strength, for one last and mighty effort, with the hope that they might break our ranks as they had done those of some other nationalities No less than three campaign journals were established in the Norwegian language, of which many thousands of copies were scattered broadcast over the whole Northwest, at an expense of thousands of dollars, but all to no purpose.

At last it began to be hinted that something now was on foot—some mysterious workings were observed in their ranks, and it was confidently hoped by them that this last manœuvre, this final effort, would be the Blucher that was to make the 5th of November a Waterloo to the Republican party as far as our countrymen were concerned. Surely enough, the "Blucher" came in the form of an address signed by Mons Anderson, the Norwegian Greeley candidate Elector of this State, but it was still-born—killed in the delivery by the open letter from the great part of the Norwegians in this city, and by the ood sense of our countrymen. Instead of aking our ranks and routing the "horse, ot and dragoons," as had been confidently anticipated by them, we cannot see that it has influenced one solitary vote We come to this conclusion not only from our personal knowledge, as far as that extends, but also from the abundant information we have received concerning it, and from the heavy Republican majorities in the strong Norwegian counties This (La Crosse) county was only saved by the unbroken front of the Norwegians In Dane county our friends have for years relied wholly on their heavy Norwegian vote to carry the county, and this year a part of the county ticket was lost in spite of them. In Juneau county they are coming out all right by the help of the Norwegian vote. In Racine, Walworth and Rock counties it helped to swell their Republican majorities, and in many counties, such as Vernon, Trempealeau, Clark, Eau Claire, Dunn, Green, Portage, Pierce, St Croix, Waupaca, Winnebago and Columbia, their large majorities are in a great measure, and some of them entirely, due to our people and every county which has more or less Norwegians has always, by the help of the Norwegian vote, swelled the Republican majorities in the Republican counties, or reduced the Democratic majorities in the Democratic counties

As in Wisconsin, so it also is in Minnesota. Houston, Fillmore, Mower, Freeborn, Faribault, Olmsted, Blue Earth, Goodhue, Kandiyohi, Pope, and other counties, owe their overwhelming Republican majorities to the Norwegian vote, and it is this same vote which has saved so many counties from the clutches of the Liberal Democrats. But what more is said about Wisconsin and Minnesota is also the fact in the counties of Iowa, Illinois, Michigan and every State where the Norwegians are living

In addition to the talk about corruption, etc, etc, special arguments have been brought to bear upon the Norwegians We have been told that the Republican party has misused and abused us, that we are wanted to cast votes for the Republican party, but when it comes to the distribution of offices, our services are not wanted.

Now, we would give a bit of advice to the managers of the Democratic party, and that is to waste no more effort or money upon the Norwegians. It is merely "love's labor lost" if the Republican party forsakes its principles and becomes rotten and corrupt, like the Democratic party, the Norwegians will [illegible] it, and will leave the party without be[illegible] either bought or coaxed by the Democ[illegible] and if the Republican party systemat[illegible] our countrymen aside, and ignores [illegible] in the distribution of offices, they will [illegible] how to resent the insult. So in any [illegible] you can save your trouble and your ney, for so long as our countrymen are satisfied with the Republican party they can [illegible] be bought or huddled into forsaking [illegible] while, if for either of the above mentioned reasons, they should become dissatisfied with [illegible] they will leave it as they came into it—of their own free will and accord We give this [illegible] of advice for the good of our Democratic friends, that they may profit by it and save your much needed cash in the future.

roceedings of the Washington County Farmers' Club.

The Club met at Hillsboro November 26th, and was called to order by the President, Mr. William Wilson The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, when, on motion, the Club proceeded to the discussion of the subject proposed at the last meeting, namely "Shall the farmers of this county turn their attention less to raising grain and more to stock? and, if so, what kind of stock and how sustained?"

Mr. Humphreys thought the question not quite right, as it carries the idea that turning attention more to stock necessitates less attention to grain. He thought we must raise more stock but not less grain. He differed with Mr Freeman, who thinks summer fallowing with sheep is indispensable to good farming, and said sheep are good to kill weeds [illegible] anything else that can be grown on the farm, and as to summer fallowing he thought it an injury to the ground to cultivate it in the dry season, causing the elements of plant food to evaporate more rapidly. He can raise no spring crops with the labor necessary for the summer fallowed one Said the fertilizing elements coming in the rain of 70 inches in the season are equal to 20 or 30 loads of manure to the acre. His land yields better every year by deep plowing in the fall and fallow in the spring

Mr. Griffin was glad to have the matter discussed as to the impropriety of summer fallowing, and had had his doubts for many years about it Thinks raising a grain crop much better for the land than burning in the [illegible] If we turn to stock, where is our market? We must have money to keep up the [illegible]gos, or we cannot get immigration Thinks the way out is to become a manufacturing people, by offering inducements to the higher grade of manufacturers who have been successful in such enterprises, as the manufacture of beet sugar, which has been of such great value to the agriculture of France. The farmer taking the beet to the factory and receiving in return as partial payment the pulp after the sugar has been extracted to feed his stock upon the farm where the beets were produced.

Mr. Wilcox was glad to hear that summer fallowing is really not good farming and injures the land, for now he thinks he can go some encouraged, as he never summer fallowed his farm, and it is now all the better for it.

Mr. Best said we must not raise wheat and oats year after year, but occasionally raise corn, as it gives more and better feed than almost anything else

Mr. Warren said his land was more productive than when he went upon it a few years ago, and thinks it is because he plows in the fall but said we must encourage manufactories, and would favor a resolution requiring the members of the Club to purchase home manufactured articles and machinery in preference Thought it not quite right to buy manufactured wagons, etc

Mr Humphreys thought stock raising would impoverish land—that history will prove it The animal is the product of the earth, and a greater draught upon it than the excrements has returned, and that the phosphorus in the bones of an animal is more valuable to the land than the excrements of the animal during the time of its growth

Mr Warren said he had produced 1,200 pounds of good pork worth 7 cents per pound—$81—at a cost of not more than $25 in feed

Mr Best thought deep plowing in the fall makes the land so it can be plowed earlier in the spring The hard times we complain of are partly our own fault, we do not always sell our produce when a good price is offered He referred to wood and other commodities

Mr. Wilcox said that although sentence has been passed upon the hog, he is going to follow him to poverty or prosperity

Mr Best wanted to know why it is that land never having been plowed will not produce as much as the same kind of land twenty years ago

Mr Warren remarked that the same is true of prairie lands of Illinois

Mr Humphreys said the reason is the land was more porous twenty years ago, and in a good condition to receive the fertilizing influence of the rain, but now it is hard from pasturage The water runs off on the top of the ground.

Mr Gibson said for five years he had plowed a certain field deep in the fall and shallow in the spring, and raised forty bushels of oats to the acre every year

Mr. Wilcox thinks he can see light ahead yet, as he finds that manure is valuable, and that Mr Humphreys says that bones are so valuable as manure, and he has both scattered all over his farm.

On motion the principal question of discussion at the next meeting was "What is the most practicable way to enrich the Farming Lands of this County

On motion the meeting adjourned.

The discovery of a new gold placer in Lassen county, California, is reported by the Sage Brush That paper says

A few evenings since we were shown a little package of some $2 in gold dust, which the possessor informed us was the result of washing six pans of dirt from the bald hills below Watson's place, about six miles from here It is now quite evident that the same character of paying gravel that exists in the Busquet claims extends in an easterly direction along the face of the mountain as far or farther than the pass where the Susanville and Janesville road crosses the mountain If this be the case there are many millions of dollars worth of gold dust but waiting for the simple trial on our part to put it in circulation

One of the clergymen in Peoria Illinois has been living in a parsonage that did not come up to his idea of what a minister should enjoy Recently he was called upon to announce that there would be a mite society at the ministerial building After having said the mite society will be held at the parsonage he paused a moment and then remarked "On the corner of the street near my residence is a well Said well is covered and clapboarded It is unpainted and weatherworn, but I wish to describe it so that none of you may make a mistake and take the well for the parsonage The mite society will be held in the parsonage and not in the well

Portland Legal Tender rates 88¼c buying 89½c selling

Wheat in Liverpool—Average 12s@12s 6d, Club, 12s 8d@13

The tone of the local money market is apparently better, and we are no reason to suspect the nearness of any more stringent condition of affairs than has been felt for months past The capital of our State is clearly insufficient to supply the demands for that amount of business which is being carried on, and what we need is less importing more patronage for our home manufactories the encouragement of domestic enterprises and thus keep a greater proportion of the money made and coming here in the country We cannot lay the serious charge to capitalists in Oregon which the leading commercial journal of San Francisco charges upon the moneyed men of California in the following written in that city a few days ago

"That the San Francisco money market should be restricted in the amount of funds required to transact a largely improved business can excite no surprise when we behold our wealthiest and most influential citizens who have made their money here, withholding their means from fields of legitimate enterprise to embark them on the wild sea of speculation and reckless gambling The bursting of the diamond mining bubble has disclosed a condition of affairs that is far from creditable to our good name as a community Skill, experience and industry are qualities which generally command respect and confidence but they seem to be out of their proper sphere in San Francisco Applications from men possessing those qualities for means to establish factories, to aid in developing our resources, to assist in providing those facilities which constitute the strength and glory of a State have been treated with scorn and chilling indifference, but when funds are required to promote some vile scheme which holds forth even the shadow of a prospect for rapid acquirement of wealth money in a required quantity is poured forth like water"

But we hardly think that the wealthy men on this coast, as a class are entirely clear of the imputations laid at their door, in the article referred to To this there are many honorable exceptions, and the disposition to engage in wild speculation has doubtless been engendered by the rapidity with which in some instances fortunes have been accumulated on this coast in former years and viewed, under the circumstances, is not a matter of very great surprise But we are glad to chronicle the fact that a point in our history as a commercial community, has been reached at which capital has been made more conducive to the forwarding of those enterprises which, though slower in the returns they make on investment, are the greatest evidences of commercial thrift prosperity and permanency The oppressive stringency prevailing during the past six months is not to be attributed to a disposition of this kind as it has not at all been confined to this coast or this country, but has been felt as well in Eastern cities, in England and on the Continent The leading financial heads of the day have been puzzled over the question, and have not been able to solve it The New York Times of a late date says that advices from London are not yet very clear as to the causes of the dearness of money The prevailing explanation is that Germany is drawing Gold for recoinage at the Imperial mint in Berlin, and that the new coins will not enter into general circulation until after the new year This report, however, fails to account satisfactorily for the advance in the Bank of England rate of interest, with over twenty millions sterling in Gold ($100,000,000) in the vault. There would seem to be a want of elasticity in the Peel act of 1844, whereby the Bank of England Notes Circulation is made to perform the same office for the trade of Great Britain now as thirty years ago—the export of British produce having in the meantime increased from less than £76,000,000 per annum to £190,000,000

Rise in Leather.

The San Francisco Chronicle of the 3d inst, on this subject, says the advance of price in the Boston Shoe and Leather market since the fire has had a tendency to make the market unsettled In sole leather there has been an advance of from one to two cents, and in uppers from two to four cents In wax and kip Leather there has been an advance of twelve and a half per cent. The losses to the trade generally are believed to be larger than was at first supposed "About 800,000 sides of hemlock, oak and union crop sole Leather have been consumed and of sole kip wax grain and buff upper Leather there have been in the vicinity of 800,000 sides destroyed, thus showing that the market has been pretty thoroughly exhausted and that it will have to wait receipts from the tanneries before it can be considerable able to furnish the basis of any large transactions" Rough uppers have advanced to 35@38c for medium and light hemlock while heavy is quoted at 30@33c Rough calfskins very scarce 70@80c.

Home Produce Market

WHEAT —During the week now closing our quotations by telegraph have advanced in San Francisco while they have declined at Liverpool This would seem strange as the California market is governed almost entirely by the English market We can account for it in no way but on the ground that speculators are moving in the trade at San Francisco, and that the rise is the work of bulls The dispatch from Stockton giving closing quotations at that place to day at $1 87½ is a matter of some surprise, and will add to the agitation in our own market on Monday At present ours is unsettled and buyers at $1 45 are more willing than sellers yet we scarcely feel authorized in advancing quotations above that figure

OATS —Receipts under the advanced quotations are increasing, and the quantity in store is quite large The demand is scarcely as brisk as early in the week The quotations to day range at $1 60 per 100 pounds

FLOUR —The winter rains opening navigation of the Wallamet the result is an increase in supplies from that direction which tends to weaken the market though prices keep well up owing to the fair demand for export purposes

BUTTER —Choice lots for home consumption are in good demand at 45@50 cents per pound. Common cooking is well supplied at lower rates

EGGS —The receipts to-day have been large, and while the demand has been good, prices seem to weaken Quotable at 40@42 cents per dozen.

Other products unchanged.

DR. RESSER,
Third st., bet. Mill and Market streets,
SECOND DOOR FROM CORNER OF MARKET

DR RESSER HAVING LOCATED HIMSELF IN Portland, permanently, makes both
Liver & Lung Diseases
A SPECIALTY,

And is now prepared to treat patients for these diseases. Not being fortunate enough to have treated a great many eminent and distinguished persons whose names are most generally emblazoned to the world by advertising physicians; but at the same time I can produce numerous and voluntary testimonials from those I have treated for the above diseases!

It is well enough known throughout California that I am the possessor of a secret to prepare a medicine, purely vegetable, for the above diseases, and have made some of the

Most Remarkable Cures on Record,

And in cases which were entirely despaired of by other physicians

A Card to the Public.

Having learned that Dr H RESSER has located himself in Portland, I deem it my duty to the public and more particularly those persons who may be afflicted as I have been After leaving Portland a few months ago, I became afflicted with Epileptic Fits and after having tried and consulted several distinguished physicians, without any benefit whatever I was advised to call on Dr H RESSER who happened to be visiting Virginia City at the time on professional business I lost no time in placing myself under the care of DR RESSER, and am now restored to perfect health I can most highly recommend DR RESSER to those who may be equally afflicted FREDERICK KORNER.

Other Testimony.

MR EDITOR I saw in your last issue of the Press a card written by Mr Robinson and I deem it my duty also to make a similar statement, for the benefit of those who are troubled with disease of the lungs Three years ago I commenced under the treatment of some of the most skillful physicians of the Atlantic States who pronounced my case Bronchial Consumption After treating with them about two years without benefit, I was advised a change of climate, which I made, and came to Santa Barbara about a year ago, with the hopes of a speedy recovery but could not see that the change had been what I anticipated until a month since I commenced under the treatment of Dr RESSER, and have improved in health very much in that time, and am confident in a short time I will be restored to perfect health under his treatment. I cordially recommend DR RESSER to the public MRS M L REYNOLDS

ST CHARLES HOTEL
SANTA BARBARA, CAL, May 25, 1871

I consider it my duty to the public to make the following statement, hoping that some unfortunate invalid may be benefitted by it Having been sick for some time with lung disease (consumption) I applied to many physicians in San Francisco and other places, under whose treatment I found no relief A short time since I met Dr Resser here in Santa Barbara and knowing of some of the wonderful cures he has made in different parts of the State I put myself under his treatment and commenced to improve immediately I can warmly recommend Dr Resser to all who are afflicted with this dreadful disease, as he makes the lung and liver diseases a specialty
ELIJAH ROBINSON.

Card.

It is well known here that I have been under the doctors care for the last twelve months in San Francisco and here but could receive no benefit from any one When Dr Resser arrived here a short time ago I put myself under his treatment and commenced to improve immediately and I am confident that in a short time I shall be restored to my health again I can highly recommend Dr Resser to the public

Card.

To remove all doubt from the public mind in relation to a question which has created some dispute in San Jose I feel it my duty to make the following public statement of facts It is well known that my wife was very low with consumption—so low in fact that I had given up all hope of her recovery I called on Dr H RESSER, who makes consumption his specialty and in two weeks time my wife's health had so improved that she was able to walk out, and for the last three weeks has been on a visit to San Francisco and is growing stronger every day I can recommend DR RESSER to all who are afflicted with diseases of the lungs MOSES CHADBOURNE

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street corner of Commercial San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their sallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combated by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintance disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath coughs, consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions By inclosing Ten Dollars coin in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR J F GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial San Francisco, Post Office Box 1 957, REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian 1y3d1pt
